Lebanon: Basket was busted and vandalized, park was good to get it fixed fast.

Millikan: Has nine new holes. Calling the course Ferhman's Millikan Mile.

Oxford: Someone is cutting some things down that he should be cutting down.

Monroe:

Hueston Woods: Shut down for now.

Gardner:

Heritage:

Williamsburg: Concern was to spend the money and not have the time to put in all of the tee pads. Long term they want to put in around 20 tee pads. We are willing to donate the money to help, but need to have a plan for a few tee pads at a time. Or to come up with a full plan to have it done for a day.

Check with Goshen about possible wood for frames. Drew has set up a possible skid steer driver to help with moving concrete. Working on new proposal.

May need two more baskets as well.

AM Worlds:

Hoping to meet with Adam this week to start writing the bid. Touched base with summit to make sure they know we are still wanting to use them. Talked with Cincinnati Visitors Bureau to work out the Hotel deal.

501c3:

Hoping to finish the work on Sunday.

New Business:

Drew GPS at Harbin worked on marking the course. He has seven holes with suggestions.

Proposal was raised to appropriate up to $1000 to help put in nine full size tee Pads at Williamsburg. Motion passes unanimously.

Batavia township contacted Joe about going out to a park to see the property and the probability of putting a nine or eighteen hole course in.

Lifetime member looking to make up shirts and other items for various volunteers. We are in agreement that we should do this.
