Sam e-mail santoline@gmail.com send minutes from July 2019 to now.

Membership:

We have set it up and it is up and running. The goal of allowing club members early registration worked well. Early returns are good.

This method will let them be able to get the PDGA Discount, Have to be a club member by a certain date to be eligible for early registration.

We want to have early PDGA tournament sign-up for members.

Would like to give members early sign up to the Pig.

Vendor:

Discs are low, but we have orders in.

Course Challenge Series:

August 7th Club event at Winton. Disc Dice Game. Roll the dice in the morning. Two rounds. Three Disc challenge. Putter, Mid and Driver.

September 3rd Flying Pig (Players Pack)

September 25th New Thornageddon date

October 2nd Burnet Woods (Players Pack?)

November 5th Lincoln Ridge

Leagues:

Tournaments

The Idlewild Open:

$1847.67 Total spent including permits

What did we sell?

1008 Hot dogs = 28 thirty-six packs

252 Bratts = 18 fourteen packs

210 Coke = 6 Thirty-five packs

214 Mt. Dew = 6 thirty-six packs

35 Dt. Coke = 1 pack

288 Water = 8 thirty-six packs

264 Gatorade = 11 twenty-four packs

550 Chips = 19 thirty packs

$4,249.00 brought in from card and cash. Around 30 discs sold along with a few other items.

I would say about $400 to $500 made from discs.

We gave out $610 in food to the volunteers.

We need to really push to have some other volunteers work with us in the concession booth.

Members would be preferred.

We very possibly will get reimbursed about $100 since it cost about $500 to have a booth at Idlewild.
